October 2-4 (we would need to conclude by 3:00 on the 4th):

October 18-20 (Wilmington only) OR October 24-26

We have given further consideration to the issue of where the depositions should be taken. We will do the depositions in Georgetown, but only if:

1. You provide adequate space for 8 to 10 people, at no charge to the plaintiffs.
2. The witnesses are made available seriatim, without lengthy down time between depositions.
3. Our out of pocket travel expenses are reimbursed to us by the carrier or the District. We would expect that 2 lawyers will be present from our side. We would drive to Georgetown, stay at a Quality Inn-type hotel, and economize as much as reasonable, but we do not think that we should be penalized economically for accommodating your clients. Please let me know your position on this promptly.

We need to move quickly on the foregoing if we are to meet our deadlines.

Tom
